25X1 [REDACTED] CONFIDENTIAL

25X1 5. [REDACTED] Spoke with Fred Smith, in the office of Representative Larry McDonald (D., Georgia), who explained that the TASS article confusing the two Congressmen with similar names was based upon an error in the Congressional Record which was corrected the next day.

25X1 6. [REDACTED] Clark McFadden, General Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, called and said he would like to have an unclassified 25X1 version of the paper [REDACTED] delivered to him on "Comparisons of Soviet and U.S. Defense Costs." He said he would like something the Chairman could use on the floor, without attribution and without quoting directly from it.
25X1 I checked with [REDACTED] and found there is an unclassified version and 25X1 [REDACTED] will deliver it to McFadden this morning.

25X1 8. [REDACTED] Met briefly with Jack Marsh, Counselor to the President, to discuss the status of House and Senate Select Committee inquiries and pending legislation.

25X1 9. [REDACTED] Jack Boos, House Select Committee staff, visited the Agency for a session with Messrs. Knoche, Clarke and company on guidelines and procedures, Mr. Warner on the Marchetti manuscript (which is being sanitized) and access to the material on assassinations, etc., which was made available to the Senate Select Committee at the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy vault.

25X1 10. [REDACTED] Ken Rintler, on the staff of Representative Robert A. Roe (D., N.J.), called to request information on how the Congress man could contact Soviet journals in the field of communications research.
25X1 [REDACTED] Congressional Support Officer, OCI, provided several journals and in addition, a catalogue from the Victor Kamkin Bookstore in Rockville which deals in Soviet scientific journals. I called Rintler and told him we would put this package in the mail for him.
